THE OPPORTUNITY

Two Fresh Storefronts in SoDo

Michigan Row is a three-bay neighborhood retail building on East Michigan Street in Orlando's SoDo District, a short drive from Downtown and about a mile from the Orlando Health medical campus. A full exterior renovation is underway: new storefront glass, a clean modern façade, metal canopies and fresh sign bands.

Two suites are available side by side, ±1,800 SF and ±1,500 SF, with on-site parking at the door and frontage on East Michigan Street, a main east-west connector between South Orange Avenue and Conway. They suit a studio, salon, med spa, boutique or neighborhood café, and they can be combined into one ±3,300 SF space for a larger operator.

The customers are already here. More than 31,000 people work within a mile, households within a mile earn about $121,000, and SoDo's established lake neighborhoods surround the site. Opening in a refreshed building puts a new business in front of them from day one.

LOCATION · THE SODO DISTRICT

Just South of Downtown Orlando

SoDo is the business district just south of Downtown Orlando, wrapped by historic lake neighborhoods with walkable streets and parks.

Orlando Health has anchored the district since 1918, and its Orlando Regional Medical Center, Arnold Palmer and Winnie Palmer hospitals sit about a mile from Michigan Row. Residents, merchants and property owners have worked through the City's Main Street program to revitalize the Orange Avenue and Michigan Street corridors.

National retailers have invested along South Orange Avenue, while boutique shops and family-run restaurants give the district its character. Michigan Row sits in the middle of that mix, a few blocks east of Orange Avenue.
